CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Arbor Days—April 16 and 23. All size rugs at J. K. Johnston's. J. K. Johnston has 5-cent muslin this week again.

A lot of new advertisements this week. See them.

Thomas F. Sloan Jr. has been spending some time in New York City.

Preaching next Sunday morning at the M. E. church in town at 10:30, and at Cito at 3 p. m.

J. A. Aller and two sons Brice and Oscar, inspected the NEWS printing machinery Thursday of last week.

Miss Rose Fisher came over from Chambersburg last Saturday evening to see her aunt, Mrs. S. B. Woollet who is very ill.

Mrs. Sabina Mellott and son Webster were in town Monday. Mrs. Mellott has a lemon tree that is now full of blossoms with a prospect of a good crop of fruit.

Miss Mary Fisher, who has been going to school at Millville, N. J., came home Tuesday evening to see her aunt, Mrs. S. B. Woollet, who suffered an attack of pneumonia.

Our mother county seat—Bedford—now enjoys the distinction of having a second class postoffice. The office now handles more than $100,000 annually. Congratulations, mother.

Wanted—Three or four live sub-agents to represent the Brisco Car Agency. Don't apply unless you mean business. For particulars phone or write Ripple's Garage, Orbisonia, Pa. 4-15-2t

It is time to begin practicing that unconscious look we will try to wear next fall when strangers compliment the County for having built a railroad, 'cause we'll feel like a boy with his first new watch.

Nathan H. Mellott, of Pleasant Ridge, accompanied by his daughter Miss Blanche, were rare visitors in town on Thursday of last week—three years having passed since Mr. Mellott made his last trip to town. Mr. Mellott arranged for some printing while in the News office.

Mrs. Nancy Divens, of Knobsville, accompanied by Nellie May Keebaugh, were pleasant callers at the News office Monday morning. Nellie is a daughter of James and Elizabeth Keebaugh, and in the three years she has gone to school has not missed a day.

President Edward J. Post, of the McConnellsburg and Fort Loudon Railway Company, purchased a Studebaker roadster from agent Joe S. Rutz, Fort Loudon, latter part of last week, drove it to Baltimore, and on Monday returned to this place accompanied by Mrs. Post who had been spending some time in that city.

As W. F. Berkstresser and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bergstresser of Waterfall were coming to town last Friday in a buggy, they had an experience that was interesting for a minute. As they were passing a limekiln near Winegardners School House, the horse shied and without notice to the driver turned suddenly in the road, spilling the occupants. Fortunately no one was hurt, nor was anything broken, and in a few minutes they were again headed for McConnellsburg none the worse for the exciting experience.

At a recent term of court in Hollidaysburg, Mrs. Frank Keith sued her husband for non-support, he having been directed by the court at the time of their separation in 1911, to pay Mrs. Keith $11 per month alimony. Mrs. Keith claimed that Frank was in arrears for two years. At the trial excitement ran high between the opposition lawyers, so that the Judge had to act as peace-maker. When both sides had presented their cases, it developed that Keith had been out of work for some time, and this was given as one reason for non-payment; but as he now has a steady job, the Court directed that he should begin on April 15th to pay the monthly allowance of $11, and in addition, pay her two dollars a month on the back alimony.

Alexander—Conner.

Mr. Edgar Alexander, of this place, and Miss Flora Belle Conner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conner, Warren township, Franklin county, were united in marriage at the home of the bride, on April 8, 1915, by Rev. R. E. Peterman, of this place. The groom is a well known teacher in the County, but is now engaged in courteously hustling passengers and express over the mountain from Mercersburg.

The bride is an accomplished young lady—a favorite with many friends. On April 12th, the happy young people went to house keeping in Mr. John Stoutengale's house on east Lincoln Way.

These fine young people begin married life with best wishes of a very large circle of friends.

"As Others See Us."

From Bulletin No. 250, Department of Agriculture, we print the following extract: "McConnellsburg, the county seat, is located in one of the fertile limestone sections of the State, equal in fertility to the limestone valleys of Franklin, Cumberland, Dauphin, Lebanon, Berks, Lehigh, and Northampton counties, because the same limestone from which the limestone soil of these counties is formed occurs in this Cove. The farm products of this Cove should be converted by the farmers into concentrated forms, such as butter, milk, pork, lamb, mutton, eggs, poultry, beef and flour and sold by them to consumers through a co-operative organization of the farmers. The county has no railroads at this time but hopes to have several lines in the near future."

SIDELING HILL.

Benson Akers and mother have purchased a fine new Ford auto. Miss Ada Sharpe, of Dott, is poorly.

William Carrell is on the sick list.

Moses Hess and family and Miss Goldie Gordon went over the mountain to Whips Cove Sunday in Mr. Hess's handsome new Buick automobile with Lee Funk, of Needmore, at the wheel.

Mrs. Jeremiah Golden, of Dott, and Oliver Divilbiss and family attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Moses Mellott, at the Sideling Hill Christian church last Saturday.

Russel Layton, of Hancock, recently visited his mother, Mrs. Henry Layton.

Mrs. Job Garland has returned from a visit to Hagerstown.

Judge W. B. Stagers and wife, of Warfordsburg, were visitors recently at Locust Grove.

The Bethany church at Big Cove Tannery will hold a Pic Social on Saturday evening April 17th for the benefit of the church. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Cashier and Mrs. Allen Cutchall, of Three Springs, called, on last Sunday, to see Mr. M. W. Kirk who was so badly burned last Friday.

Village Camps.

It sometimes happens that villages are so situated that the families of business men are denied changes that break the monotony of long summer days. How often do we hear "Anything for a change!" Costly trips to seashore, or to watering places, have after all, little value beyond the change it brings from monotonous everyday life. We personally know of two towns that solved the problem in a way that was within the means of all. A camp along a stream was selected, and groups of families annually pitched tents, to which they took sufficient household goods to make them comfortable for a month—or for as long as they chose to stay. The camp was within easy driving distance of town, and heads of families spent the day at their places of business, and at night, they spent the time with their families. In this way, a healthful season of outdoor life was enjoyed by people who, otherwise, should have been perhaps, as comfortable physically—but not mentally—at home.

There is something about camping that renews youth. A kind of care-free atmosphere pervades camp life that invigorates. It calls into action thoughts and feelings that lie dormant in permanent homes. It brings one face to face with Nature—no matter if the camper's home is on a farm. The novelty of the situation quickens the pulse in a way no other form of recreation can do. The wholesome atmosphere of a tent bedroom induces peaceful slumber. Life in the most commonplace camp creates a good appetite. One may make life in camp as restful, or as strenuous, as he may wish. Business men, after a night in camp, return in the morning with the cobwebs of worry all brushed aside—act like colts turned loose in pasture, and all because of the novelty of change.

ENID.

Dan Connorsham, from Dickinson Law School, spent his Easter vacation with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. David Knepper, of Taylor, visited the former's mother, Mrs. Lizzie Woodcock last week.

Mrs. John Stunkard, Sr. and Mrs. Levi Truax visited relatives at Guany Side Lumber Camp on Tuesday of last week.

Miss Laura Edwards closed her school at Woodvale on Wednesday of last week. When she made her report to the District Superintendent, it showed the best average per cent of attendance in the County for the last month.

Ernest Foster is employed in Trough Creek for the summer. Arthur Foster, of Altoona, is visiting his brothers and sister for a short time.

A. G. Edwards returned from Akron, O last week, but Mrs. Edwards remained for a longer visit with relatives.

Miss Marian Edwards accompanied by Miss Young of Defiance, spent Sunday with the former's parents.

Miss Ethel Cramer of Newberg is visiting Laura Edwards at present.

Samuel Foster was calling on friends in the Valley the middle of the week. He expected to leave for the west on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Cessna spent the last of the week with the latter's daughter in Somerset county.

Miss Laura Edwards and Miss Ethel Cramer visited Miss Ruth Cunningham at New Grenada Thursday afternoon.

Hiary Foster is no better—is growing weaker day by day.

Carbaugh.

Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carbaugh, in Ayr township just before the noon hour on Monday, April 5, 1915, and claimed as its victim their darling babe, Nora Ellen, aged 1 month and 24 days. She will be greatly missed by her parents and by her brothers and sisters. She had been sick but a few days, and being a delicate and frail child, had greatly endeared herself to her father and mother.

Mrs. Allison Sipes and daughter Ethel, of Hustontown, were among the spring shoppers in town yesterday.

DUBLIN MILLS.

Glover, one of the twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Black is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Martin Grissinger has bought the mill property at this place. He will also do blacksmithing and repair work during the summer. He will be assisted by his brother in law, Lester Russells, who came here to live with them from near Tyrone.

W. D. Roher, wife, and son James, were guests at a surprise party at Edward Frehn's last Saturday.

Miss Tessie Bolinger has returned home. She has been working for Gard Anderson's.

Peter Kiepper has just finished burning a lime kiln of about 2,000 bushels.

William Brown came near losing his house a few days ago, fire having caught in the roof, did considerable damage before being extinguished.

Miss Lillian Madden spent Saturday and Sunday with her friend Miss Lillian Miller, of this place.

Michael Laidig went to Pittsburgh with his brother George.

John Wright is afflicted with neuralgia. It came while picking up a small brush.

The population of our town is decreasing; the last account was fifty two; it now is forty four. Could we not have some public works to keep the population from decreasing?

William Edwards has been doing some carpenter work for Wm. Clippinger and Wm. Knepper, and Elmer Knepper has been working for Wm. Clippinger.

Carl Hess has hired with Howard Barnett for the summer.

Allan Grissinger has removed to his farm near Saltillo.

Edward Brown is working in Morrison's Cove.

Robert Stratton and Robert Miller have purchased new autos.

The spring plowing is nearly all done, and a lot of it, too.

There will be preaching by Rev. Reidel at Center Sunday morning, April 18th, also, Sunday School before preaching.

E. O. Kesselring is building a new barn.

William Rank, of Hustontown, is working for Charles Knepper.

DANE.

L. W. FUNK

— DEALER IN —

High Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg,

Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay a first-class price for a fourth-class instrument. I have lived in this county since my birth, I am a taxpayer and in a position to make good any business transactions. Buy your piano, organ, or victrola from me and if it is not all right you can come back at me.

There are families in every part of this county that have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me.

Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Piano, or Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player. See me. Let's talk it over.
